Publisher's Note

Through the ages, artists have invited faith communities into a deeper relationship with God by creating visible signs of invisible grace. This directory introduces you to some of the very best liturgical artists specializing in everything from painting to stained glass. These artists will visually communicate your mission and enrich your sacred space. As your community builds, I hope this directory guides you in your spiritual journey.

Blessings,

CHRISTIANS IN THE VISUAL ARTS

Passion to Pentecost by Linda McCray, Acrylic and Sand from Jerusalem on Floating Panels

ORIGINAL PAINTINGS FOR SACRED SPACE

“Art is integral, not incidental to the liturgical life of the Church. The human hand and heart of the artist leads the worshiping community more deeply into the mystery of the incarnation and attests to the truth that ‘here God dwells among the people.’ Linda’s art fires the imagination and creates the environment for a deeper encounter with the real presence of Christ.”
